William Chen

Instructor Shipley

CSIS-1430-404

May 3, 2020

Course Reflection

This class I learned a lot about web development. During this course I learned how to code websites with HTML, then I learned how to style the website using CSS, then after some work with CSS we started learning JS, and lastly we learned how to do bootstrap on a website. After this course I am confident in my ability to design a website.